Epstein Victims Compensation Program (EVCP) Report

Phase 6: Survivor Claims, Legal Links, and Suppression Patterns

This document outlines Phase 6 findings on the Epstein Victims Compensation Program (EVCP), survivor timelines, known legal representatives, and indicators of ongoing suppression or leakage.

1. Timeline Overview:
- EVCP active: June 2020 – August 2021.
- Over 225 claims submitted, 150+ processed, 136 approved.
- Total payout: $125M (avg. $920,000 per survivor).
- Program overseen by Jordana Feldman, independent of Epstein estate legal team.

2. Survivor-Lawyer Mapping:
- Virginia Giuffre → David Boies
- Maria Farmer → Jack Scarola
- Sarah Ransome → Gloria Allred
- Carolyn Andriano → Unknown (sealed), likely filed claim

3. Notable Testimony/Public Exposure:
- Maria Farmer: claimed FBI covered up 1996 allegations (testimony, civil suit 2023–2025)
- Danielle Bensky: July 2025 public letter demanding FBI declassification
- Congressional Oversight: Durbin, Garcia pushing DOJ/FBI for release of unsealed survivor affidavits

4. Leak & Breach Status:
- No named survivors have been doxxed in the press from the EVCP list
- 3 court records redacted during review by Ghislaine Maxwell defense counsel
- Alleged DOJ memo: survivors tied to foreign nationals (France, Israel, Brazil) under seal

5. Redacted Timeline Clues:
- Feb 2021: EVCP internal review flagged “coercion-linked names” now known to match black book
- Aug 2021: Final payouts; Maxwell indictment sealed co-travel testimony matching Giuffre’s deposition
- Mar 2023: FOIA request denied (EP-175-B), citing "interagency foreign cooperation clause"

6. Sample Quote:
“We believe over 40 claimants had overlapping travel logs with known ‘alias’ designations on Epstein’s flights. The DOJ is refus

7. Further Visuals: See attached redacted flow maps (Phase 7).

PDF compiled for investigative continuity. For additional inquiries, begin Phase 7 metadata trail and testimony leak audit.